

Take Cybersecurity To the Next Level

We live in a connected world, where the threat of cyber attacks is very real. If you use Webroot to protect against threats, BrightGauge can help you efficiently manage your data. Track developments in real time and report on metrics that matter for the insights you need to make impactful business decisions.

A BrightGauge integration delivers:

- » Customizable real-time dashboards
Stop disasters before they start with a real-time view of active threats, where attention is required, infection status, and more.
- » Streamlined management
View and manage your entire install base and licenses from a single-pane-of-glass dashboard.
- » Automated reporting
We make it easy to set up a report once, then automate it on a recurring basis for the date and time you choose.
- » Powerful gauges at your disposal
15 pre-configured gauges that can be mixed, matched, and customized.
- » Concise, in-depth looks into data
BrightGauge reports maintain transparency for clients and internal team alike.
- » Bolster your single pane of glass
Popular integrations to combine with Webroot on BrightGauge include AutoTask Endpoint Management, Continuum, and Datto.
